

Arun Jain is co-chair of the program committee for HMEC 2017. He is a board certified ob/gyn in private practice in Crawfordsville IN. His wife of 25 years, Anita Joshi, two children, Nikhil and Nina and dog Kulfi live in Carmel, Indiana. He did his undergrad at Brown University and medical training at the Univ of Connecticut. Arun's love of India developed as a child from his frequent trips there as a child. He is a Board of Trustee at HTCI and loves most the idea of building a spiritual home in central Indiana that the next generation of Indian Americans will be proud of.