

Bio Data – Sant Gupta

Sant Gupta has been living in Northern Virginia for past 17 years. He immigrated to the US in 1969 to undertake graduate studies in Electrical Engineering. He has worked as an Engineer, Sales, Marketing and Product management. Along the way, he earned M.B.A, with major in Marketing and Finance. Currently, he works for a defense-oriented electronic equipment manufacturing firm as a Business Development Executive.

He has been engaged inter-faith dialog for a number of years, representing Durga Temple, located in Fairfax Station. He has been the President and the Vice President of the Executive Board of the temple. He organized Hindu-Catholic Dialog in May 2015 in cooperation with USCCB, which included representatives from the Vatican and academia. He has participated in the Holocaust Commemoration with JCRC for a number of years. He is active with and a member of a number of local and national organizations such as VHP A (Vishwa Hindu Parishad of America), IFCMW (Interfaith Conference of Metropolitan Washington), HAF (Hindu American Foundation), UHJT (United Hindu-Jain Temple) Association, to name a few.

Sant has three adult children who are well-settled in New York and New Jersey and four grand-children.

No. of Words: 195

13 August, 2017