

Recent passport size colour photograph attached

=====

Biodata

Full name: Ravi Middle name - Last name: Joshi

BIO

Ravi Joshi is currently a Board member of WAVES (World Association Of Vedic Studies), an organization that has hosted biannual conferences internationally for the past 20 years.. He is also co-founder of the online Medha Journal, <http://medhajournal.com> . He is an Engineering research and simulation professional with over 20 years of experience in global multinational corporations. He grew up in India and worked there initially after completing his Bachelor's degree in Mechanical Engineering. After moving to the US, he completed two Masters degrees before rejoining corporate life. Over the past 10 years he has lived in the Mid West of the US, where he has also been actively involved in the local Hindu Temple, as well as temple networking organizations like HMEC. He has extensive experience of teaching, mentoring and other forms of outreach to the local community, as founder teacher of the decade old Sanatana Dharma school. Over the past two years he has also been contributing talks and papers to the peer reviewed conference series "Swadeshi Indology", <http://swadeshiindology.com> .

